

Paola Mottillo & Dominic Bridge

Workshops at The Tango Center 194 West Broadway, Eugene
May 9th-11th, 2008

From Buenos Aires...

Paola Mottillo

has been dancing tango in Buenos Aires for 9 years, learning from the best teachers there. She has danced in different companies, and has recently been assisting Gustavo Naveira in his classes in Buenos Aires. She is a fantastic dancer, a true milonguera, and speaks fluent English!

Returning to Eugene...

Dominic Bridge

is an immensely talented up-and-coming young dancer. He has recently returned from Buenos Aires and a tour of teaching and performing on the east coast. He has quickly become one of the most sought-after leads in the country.

FRIDAY 9th

6:00 – 7:30 pm

Folklore: A special workshop of Chacarera. Come learn the most popular folk dance of Argentina! A real treat! (No tango experience necessary!)

SATURDAY 10th

12:00 – 1:30 pm

The Walk: This class focuses on seeking elegant posture, precise technique, and melodic timing for walking in tango and vals. (All Levels)

1:45 – 3:15 pm

La Cruzada: An innovative, inspiring new view. You never knew the cross could feel so good! And you never knew you could lead the cross... there! (BEG/INT)

3:30 – 5:00 pm

Dynamics, Musicality and Timing: Finding versatility and variation in the way we express the music. (INT)

SUNDAY 11th

12:00 – 1:30 pm

Parada to Pasada: Another new look at a common concept combined with powerful dynamic and complete with a beautiful embellishment for the ladies. (INT/ADV)

1:45 – 3:15 pm

Lapices, enrosques, planeos, oh my! This class incorporates the woman's molinete with embellishments for the man. (ADV)

PRICES Classes: $12 - $8 for students - $60 for all six. No Pre-registration Required. No partner necessary.
Private lessons $40/hour Dominic // $55 Paola // $80 both

For more info: (503) 869-0474

dominic.bridge@gmail.com - paolamottillo@yahoo.com.ar